STATE LAW/REGULATIONS	MEDICAID PROGRAM
Definition of telemedicine/telehealth
Telemedicine means the delivery of a health care service using electronic communications, information technology, or other electronic or technological means to bridge the gap between a health care provider who is located at a distant site and a patient who is located at an originating site, either with or without the assistance of an intervening health care provider. Telemedicine does not include the use, in isolation, of audio-only telephone conversation, electronic mail, instant messaging, phone text or facsimile transmission. Telehealth means the use of information and communications technologies, including telephones, remote patient monitoring devices or other electronic means to support clinical health care, provider consultation, patient and professional health related education, public health, health administration and other services. Source: NJ Statute C.45:1-61 (SB 291-2017).	No reference found.
Live Video Reimbursement
NJ Medicaid must provide coverage and payment for telemedicine or telehealth delivered services. Reimbursement rate may not exceed the rate of in-person contact. The commissioner will apply for a State Plan amendment as necessary to implement this. Source: NJ Statute C.30:4D-6k.	Telepsychiatry may be utilized by mental health clinics and/or hospital providers of outpatient mental health services to meet their physician related requirements including but not limited to intake evaluations, periodic psychiatric evaluations, medication management and/or psychotherapy sessions for clients of any age. Before any telepsychiatry services can be provided, each participating program must establish related policies and procedures. Source: NJ Division of Medical Assistance and Health Services.
