Massachusetts Detailed Policy

Medicaid Telehealth Reimbursement	Summary	Massachusetts Medicaid (MassHealth) allows for the use of telehealth in Medicaid behavioral health services. Additionally, a 2014 budget bill that allocated funds for the reimbursement of remote patient monitoring mentioned telehealth. CCHP has found no further details regarding this. It should be noted that Massachusetts is a managed care state, and that some individual Medicaid managed care plans may reimburse for telehealth delivered services.
	Definitions	Behavioral Health Services Telehealth is the use of electronic communication and information technologies to provide or support clinical care at a distance. The delivery of services through telehealth involves the use of secure interactive audio and video telecommunications systems that permit two-way, real-time communication between a patient and a provider. Source: MassHealth All Provider Bulletin 281, p. 1, Jan. 2019. Online Prescribing	The practice of medicine shall not require a face-to-face encounter between the physician and the patient prior to health care delivery via telemedicine. The standard of care applicable to the physician is the same whether the patient is seen in-person or through telemedicine. Source: "Policy on Telemedicine," Board of Registration in Medicine. June 25, 2020. (Accessed Sept. 2020). To be valid, a prescription must be issued in the usual course of the physician's professional practice, and within a physician-patient relationship that is for the purpose of maintaining the patient's well-being. In addition, the physician must conform to certain minimum standards of patient care, such as taking an adequate medical history, doing a physical and/or mental status examination and document the findings. This rule applies to any prescription, issued by any means, including the Internet or other electronic process. Source: "Internet Prescribing," MA Board of Registration in Medicine.
